

Summer Organ Academy

JULY 2-7, 2019, HALIFAX, NS

The Royal Canadian College of Organists is proud to announce the launch of a new, comprehensive training program for beginner to advanced organists! Open to organists of all abilities, the Summer Organ Academy offers three registration streams: Youth (19 and under), Performance, and Church Organist. The Academy features five intensive days of lessons, masterclasses, and seminars with some of Canada's outstanding organists in a supportive and inspiring environment. Participants will stay on the beautiful campus of Dalhousie University and experience some of Halifax's finest organs. Enrollment includes complimentary registration for the Halifax Organ Festival which follows the Academy from July 7-11, 2019.

Teaching Faculty

- Matthew Larkin
- Rachel Laurin
- Rachel Mahon
- Gayle Martin
- Sarah Svendsen
- Wayne Rogers

With Guests Lecturers

- Robert Hiller
- Joachim Segger

Youth Program (14-19 years old)

- Semi-private lessons with Rachel Mahon or Sarah Svendsen
- Small group masterclasses, improvisation, seminars
- Daily theory classes
- Performance opportunities
- Organ maintenance workshop
- Daily practice
- All meals and accommodation (double occupancy room)
- Fee: $650.00, includes complimentary Halifax Organ Festival registration

Performance and Church Organist Programs

- Performance Stream private lessons with Rachel Laurin and Gayle Martin
- Church Music Stream private lessons with Wayne Rogers, Sarah Svendsen, and Rachel Mahon
- Semi-private improvisation lessons
- Daily classes in ARCCO/FRCCO examination preparation
- Seminars in organ literature and repertoire, performance classes and masterclasses
- Organ maintenance workshop
- A minimum of three hours daily practice
- Daily church music seminars (Church Music Program only)
- Breakfast, lunch, snacks, Welcome Dinner, and accommodation (double occupancy room)
- Fee: $810.00, includes complimentary Halifax Organ Festival registration

For more information go to <https://www.rcco.ca/soa> or contact us at info@rcco.ca.